

I Am Your Policy

I am your life insurance policy.
You and I have similar purposes in this world.

It has always been your job to provide food, clothing, shelter, schooling, medicine, and other things for your loved ones. You have worked hard to provide for them and made sure as you have grown older that you are not a burden on them. You have done all of this while I lie in your safe deposit box or other safe places.

I have faith and trust in you. Out of your earnings will come the cost of my upkeep. At times, I may appear insignificant to you- but someday (and who knows when that day will come) you and I will change places.

When you are laid to rest, I will come alive and do your job. I may provide food, clothing, shelter, schooling, and medicine or perhaps even more importantly, I can make sure that your final wishes are met and that in your family's time of great sorrow they will not have to be concerned about how they will pay for your final needs.

When your work and labor are done, mine will begin. Just as I had faith in you, you can have faith that through me, your love and support of your family can carry on.

Whenever you feel the price, you're paying for my upkeep is burdensome, remember that I will do more for you and your family than you will ever do for me.

If you do your part, I promise I will do mine.

Sincerely yours,
Your Life Insurance Policy
